Aaron,

Sorry for the late response. I am out of the office until Aug.21. My partner Rob Livingston is returning from vacation Monday and can hopefully coordinate with you next week the production of the documents. I am copying him in on this email.

Kris,

I am in receipt of Maria's objections. It appears that she did not object to the majority of our requests. Can you produce documents responsive to the requests for which there is no objection? We are dangerously close to our discovery cut off and our subpoena has been outstanding for some time. We would love to avoid having to seek court intervention to enforce the subpoena.

Perhaps we should set a time tomorrow to discuss?

As always, thanks for your help!

Best,

Aaron

Robert,

Any update to the technical issues you were experiencing earlier this week?

Best,

Aaron

Seth and Aaron,

This morning while working on the response a hard drive failed. We are working to remedy the situation. Our tech folks will try to rebuild the drive and then we'll seek alternative methods to get that drive back up and running. IF that does not work, we'll secure the data from the originals. This will delay our response. I cannot predict at this moment the additional time. Will be in a better position when I hear back from our tech folks.

Seth,

In subpoena request #8, it references "PPS." What is "PPS"?

Please advise.

Rob,

That works for me. Aaron has some other obligations, but I will give you a call then.

Thanks,

Robert,

I hope you had a nice vacation. I am following up on Mr. Madsen's email from last week. Do you have some time today or tomorrow to discuss how to handle the production of documents responsive to our subpoena?

Thanks,

Aaron
